SCOTLAND – TIME TO SHARE

Many things combine to make Scotland unique. Ancient castles with resident ghosts, deep dark lochs, majestic glens and soaring mountain peaks form the perfect backdrop to picturesque towns, isolated crofts, towering castles and pagoda-topped distilleries. Feel the heartbeat of centuries in the historic Stone of Destiny - Scotland's greatest symbol and touchstone of a country with 8000 years of history. These are just a few of the very special experiences we can share with you to make your visit here one you will never forget.

SCOTLAND'S HERITAGE

'A real feeling of Scottish HISTORY and TRADITION.'

SCOTLAND – TIME FOR TRADITION

Edinburgh Castle's ancient walls afford views of the city and the countryside from every aspect. Perched on a long extinct volcanic outcrop above the capital city, the castle has a wealth of must-see treasures including; Mons Meg - the great cannon, which fires a salute over the city every day at one o'clock - the Great Hall, St Margaret's Chapel, the National War Museum of Scotland, the Scots Dragoon Guards Museum, the Crown Room & Crown Jewels and the Scottish National War Memorial.

'Informative, enlightening with an unusual twist, giving a really enjoyable EXPERIENCE.'

SCOTLAND – TIME FOR A ‘WEE’ DRAM

The Famous Grouse Experience, located at the Glenturret Distillery, allows you to discover the secrets behind Scotland’s best loved whisky, ‘The Famous Grouse’. The surroundings offer the perfect location to escape the stresses and strains of the world.

Discover and view the traditional methods of malt whisky production of the single Glenturret malt by expert guides and Dramolliers, who give live demonstrations in the marrying warehouse of how to blend the perfect whisky. You will be guided through the nosing and tasting bar - where you can try your hand (or nose) at identifying all kinds of smells and flavours in the water of life.

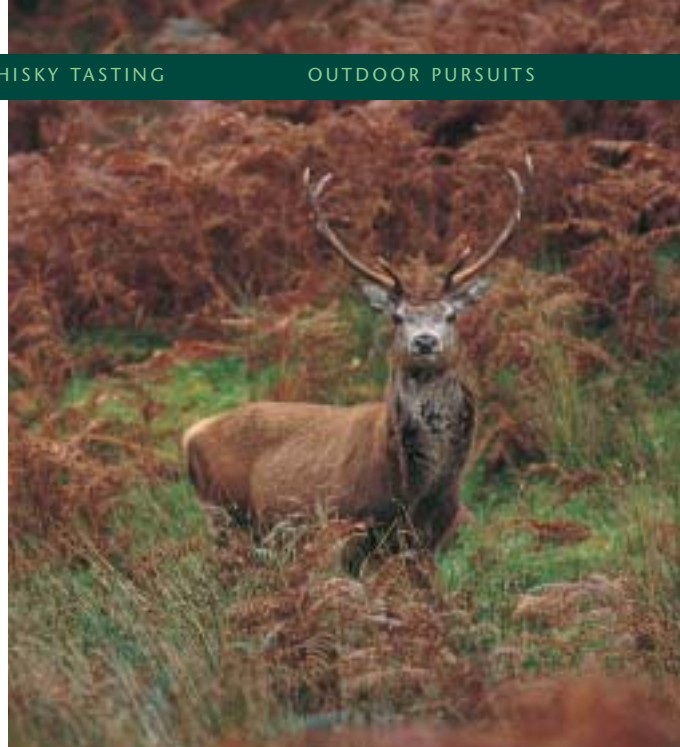

'Spectacular views, freshest air – bold, bracing and BEAUTIFUL.'

SCOTLAND – TIME FOR ADVENTURE

Highland Perthshire is the home of some of Scotland's most spectacular scenery and wildlife of world-class quality. With Highland Adventure Safari, climb aboard a Safari Land Rover to experience a secret Scotland. Explore this beautiful and diverse environment to heights of nearly 3000 feet in the company of experienced and knowledgeable rangers.

This unforgettable experience will take you on a journey of discovery exploring forest tracks and private hill roads. Armed with binoculars and telescope, search for the unique and rare wildlife that exists in what is Europe's last wilderness, the famous grouse, the elusive mountain hare, the majestic red deer and the soaring Golden Eagle. Enjoy a picnic lunch and time to relax and take in the beauty of the setting.

'Breathtakingly BEAUTIFUL - spectacular views.'

SCOTLAND – TIME TO DISCOVER

St Andrews is famous throughout the world as the home of golf. Explore more of St Andrews by taking a trip back in time - at the ancient Cathedral, climb St Rule's Tower for magnificent views of the town. St Andrews Preservation Trust and Museum is a 17th century house with displays and reconstructions of the town's past. Enjoy a stroll around the historic town centre with its traditional shops and boutiques, then pay a visit to Scotland's Secret Bunker - a truly unique glimpse into the twilight world of the cold war government, hidden underground. There is time for a bracing walk along the West Sands award winning beach, immortalised in the film Chariots of Fire . . . enjoy!
