

SHREG 2022

Meeting of the Scottish Human Reproduction and Embryology Group

Apex City Quay Hotel & Spa, Dundee 29 - 30 April 2022

About SHREG

Scotland's very own fertility meeting is returning and will be hosted for the first time in the City of Discovery - Dundee. Organised by colleagues in the School of Medicine, University of Dundee and the Assisted Conception Unit, Ninewells Hospital, this two-day meeting will bring together the brightest minds in the field, including national and international fertility experts, for networking, discussions and developing ideas for ART.

Morning Workshops

Dear Delegate,

We have had a terrific response to our registration and are now fully booked and operating a waiting list. You should have by now received your delegate information, but if you have any further questions, email us at SHREG@dundee.ac.uk

We are delighted to announce that CooperSurgical are able to offer the following workshop prior to SHREG 2022 on the morning of Friday 29 April 2022 in the Exhibition Room at our conference venue Apex City Quay Hotel:

Marginal Gains In Vitrification

Attend our 1-hour Vitrification training and get hands-on with our VitriFit's! Certificate of attendance provided upon request. Places are limited to 6 delegates for this 11 am session which must be booked in advance. Email Tena Radosevic-Novacic, tena.radosevicnovacic@coopersurgical.com to secure a place. Places are offered on a 'first come first served' basis.

This is in addition to the Ovarian Pick-up and Embryo Transfer Demonstrations being offered also on Friday morning ahead of the meeting in the Melbourne Room previously announced. Places were limited although you can see if there are any places available by emailing Claire Brockie, brockiec@gedeonrichter.com

Looking forward to seeing you at SHREG 2022!

Best wishes,

Dr Vanessa Kay
and on behalf of all the SHREG team.
