

Explore our Destination

Dundee, Angus, Fife & Perthshire Scotland

We would have loved to have met you in person at our event, but for now, have put together a collection of virtual visitor experiences of our beautiful corner of Scotland and hope to welcome you one day soon.

#LoveDundee

Image Courtesy of Dundee, One City Many Discoveries

#VisitAngus

Image Courtesy of Visit Angus

#loveFife

Image Courtesy of Fife Council

#perthshire

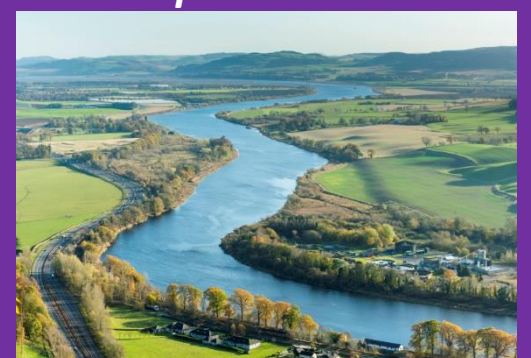

Image Credit VisitScotland / Kenny Lam

Slessor Gardens, Dundee

Image Courtesy of Dundee, One City Many Discoveries

Historical Tour of the Campus

Join University museum curator Matthew Jarron on a walking tour here around the University of Dundee's city campus, visiting some of the older buildings and exploring the history of the University and some of its early professors. Find out more about the University's Museum Collections at www.dundee.ac.uk/museum

Matthew has also made a series of videos telling stories of some of the most interesting objects and artworks in the University Collection. View the range of videos available here

The McManus: Dundee's Art Gallery & Museum Audio Guides

Embark on a journey through 400 million years, and witness how a small settlement developed into the City of Dundee as it is today. From exhibits relating to the life of early man in the area, stunning paintings and decorative art through to artefacts from industries past and present, the City's collections, many of which are recognised as being of national significance, give an insight into Dundee and its people.

Access the audio tour of The McManus: Dundee's Art Gallery and Museum here.

DD Tours – Audio Tour & Stories

Explore Dundee's history with us, with our free audio tour of Broughty Ferry (that you can walk in person, or use google street view for a virtual walk), and downloadable audio stories from our local tour guides. We also have video of local landmarks on our social media, and plenty of stories to browse on our website, plus a new book of Dundee's Burial Grounds in Pictures available to buy online.

Public Art Tours

Dundee has an exceptional and pioneering collection of over 600 pieces of public art including murals, sculptures, mosaics and more.

University of Dundee museum curator Matthew Jarron has made a series of virtual tours of public art in different parts of the city using Google Streetview. View the playlist of tours here

Royal Research Ship Discovery

Made in Dundee | Designed for Adventure. Award-winning visitor attraction tells the story of the iconic ship 'Discovery' from her beginnings in Dundee, her amazing Antarctic expedition with Captain Scott and her voyages and uses thereafter. Have a look at our Tour Guide Tales video here and our video tours of notable moments of RRS Discovery and features that helped the Discovery to survive her journeys to Antarctica here.

Dundee Delights

is a range of illustrated products and greetings cards designed by Louise Kirby. Featuring local landmarks and tasty foods of the area. Designs have a positive and fresh image of the city that connect people and bring joy.

Products include tea towels, magnets, greetings cards, notepads, tote bags and art prints. You can see the collection here.

Gifts & Cards

QuirkyCoo.co.uk

Quirky Coo

Quirky Coo showcase a broad mix of gifts aimed at helping you find the perfect present. They are lucky to stock some of the very best of what Scotland has to offer (as well as from further afield) and are keen to support and promote independent, home grown talent. Have a browse around the shop here

Dundee Museum of Transport

We tell the stories of local transport pioneers and innovators and display vehicles from local and national collections. Have a look at our website here. Visit our facebook page here.

Glen Clova, Angus
Image Courtesy of Visit Angus

Doors Open Day - Films

Arbroath Abbey was founded in 1178 from King William the Lion in memory of martyr

Thomas Becket, for a group of Benedict monks from Kelso Abbey. View here.

The Mortuary Chapel designed by Patrick Allan-Fraser is a remarkable building notable for its eclectic mix of styles, including reference to Scottish, English and possibly other precedents from East European Gothic. View here

Airlie Monument erected in memory of the 11th Earl of Airlie who was killed in the Boer War 11 June 1900. The stonework of the monument was taken from Herdhill Quarry Kirriemuir. View here.

Drone Footage of Angus

Take a look at the stunning drone footage of various locations in Angus.

Balmashanner, Forfar – Youtube Link

Caledonian Railway, Brechin – Youtube Link

Corrie Fee – Youtube Link

Elephant Rock, Montrose – Youtube Link

Shakin Brig, Edzell – Youtube Link

#MyAngus

Watch our #MyAngus quickfire questions at various locations in Angus – an insider's guide to Angus.

Access playlist here which includes :

Arbroath Signal Tower Museum with Karen, Visitor Advisor

Murton Farm, Tea room and Nature Reserve with Alison Elliot, Manager

Newton Farm Holidays and Tours – with Louise Nicoll

Glamis Castle with Mark, House Manager

Forbes of Kingennie with Charlotte Gammie

Camera Obscura with Irena Krasinska-Lobban, Kirriemuir Regeneration Volunteer

Glamis Castle

For over 600 years Glamis Castle has been home to the Earls of Strathmore and Kinghorne. The childhood home of HM Queen Elizabeth the Queen

Mother and birthplace of HRH Princess Margaret. Glamis was also the setting for Shakespeare's 'Macbeth'. Explore from the comfort of your own home with our virtual tour. Buy your ticket here and browse our range of fantastic products to buy online here

A-Z of Angus

During summer 2020, the A-Z of things to see and do in Angus was shared on the Visit Angus Facebook and Instagram channels, to highlight the huge range of things to see and do that Angus has to offer. Have a look at our A-Z Blog here.

Elie Ness Lighthouse
Image Courtesy of Fife Council

Welcome to (virtual) Fife

Fife companies are innovating to bring virtual experiences for you to enjoy at home. Watch the construction of the iconic Forth Bridge come to life, enjoy a virtual tour of the award-winning museum Dunfermline Carnegie Library & Galleries and view the online Sea Change Exhibition. Explore more here

Enjoy a virtual tour of Fife's distilleries

Fife distilleries are innovating and bringing their tours to you virtually. So sit back, tune in and slainte!

Explore Kingsbarns Distillery, Tayport Distillery, Lindores Abbey Distillery, Eden Mill. Details available here

Virtually access some of Fife's most interesting heritage sites.

Doors Open Days is Scotland's largest free festival that celebrates heritage and the built environment. Explore Fife from your armchair here.

CATCH St Andrews University have created an interactive map of virtual resources from venues across Scotland. Follow over 100 virtual tours, showcasing Scotland's natural and cultural heritage. You can explore the coasts and waters and travel back in time to see reconstructions of Scotland's past. Read more and view map here

The Centre for Stewardship

On the outskirts of the beautiful conservation village of Falkland. As well as caring for the A listed House of Falkland with its interiors and arts and crafts and historic landscape, they are developing the Estate as a place where people are learning how to live and work sustainably. Interests span from the value of re-skilling our communities to the impact of today's decisions on climate change for future generations. Working with local craft makers, visit our website here.

Queen's View, Perthshire

Image Credit VisitScotland / Kenny Lam

Behind Closed Doors

As part of the 2020 Doors Open Day celebrations, the charitable trust created three videos taking viewers behind the scenes in their museums, archives and to the house of William Soutar.

These videos give a glimpse of what happens behind the closed doors and in places not usually accessible to the public.

View our Doors Open Playlist here

Covid 19 Collection Project

Culture Perth and Kinross is creating a Covid-19 Collection which reflects how people and communities across Perth and Kinross have been affected by the pandemic. This collection will help enable future generations to understand its impact and learn from our experience. View our Covid 19 Collecting Project here

Culture Perth and Kinross is a charitable trust bringing art, culture, books, learning, creative communities and local history and heritage to people at 17 venues across the whole of Perth and Kinross. Read more here

The Black Watch Castle and Museum

From its formation in 1739 to the amalgamation of the Regiment in 2006 The Black Watch has played many pivotal roles in our military history. Visit our website here

Scone Palace

An exciting and colourful history as one of Scotland's most important stately homes. Fifteen hundred years ago it was the capital of the Picts. It has been the seat of parliaments and the crowning place of the Kings of Scots, including Macbeth and Robert The Bruce. The Palace houses an outstanding collection of antiques, paintings and rare artifacts. The grounds are renowned throughout the world. Visit our website here

We hope you enjoyed your virtual visit to Dundee, Angus, Fife and Perthshire.
We look forward to welcoming you back in person soon!