Travelling

You can find guidance on travelling safely in Scotland and around the UK from these information sources:

UK Government guidance – Travelling safely to the UK (link opens in new window).

Scottish Government

No COVID-19 travel rules apply for entering Scotland.

If you're visiting Scotland from another country, normal travel rules apply. This means that you do not need to complete a Passenger Locator Form, take any COVID-19 tests or self-isolate after you arrive.

When returning home or travelling to other countries outside Scotland, you should check your own government's travel advice for further help. Even though Scotland does not have COVID-19 travel rules, other countries may.

Future changes to travel advice

New COVID-19 travel rules in Scotland, or any other country, may be brought in at short notice. You should always check the latest advice for each country you're planning to travel to before booking your trip and before you go.

Message from Dundee & Angus Convention Bureau about accessing Health Services in Scotland

We welcome all of our delegates to the region for the PADiBa 2022 Symposium.

Your health and wellbeing are important to us. If you feel unwell at any time during your stay in our region, you should:

- Contact the trained first aiders at the venue or in your accommodation
- Call the NHS on 111 for urgent but not emergency care 24 hours a day, for more information visit the NHS24 website (link opens in new window)
- Call the NHS on 999 for emergency calls only – for serious illness or injury or where life is at risk

Most accident and emergency (A&E) hospital departments are not currently accepting walk-in patients who are not serious emergencies, so you should always call the NHS on 111 or 999 (emergency). They will decide if you need an ambulance, an appointment at A&E or an appointment with a local doctor or health clinic.

Healthcare in Scotland for Overseas Visitors

In Scotland, most health care is provided by the National Health Service (NHS).

If you are coming to Scotland, you may have to pay for any health care you need while you are here and should get travel insurance with medical cover before your trip.

NHS Inform tells you about the health care you may be able to get free from the NHS if you become ill or have an accident. Including information about:

- Can I get free NHS care while I am visiting Scotland?
 - What happens if I need treatment?
 - Is all healthcare free for NHS patients?
 - Will I need to pay if I need transport with medical support to get home?
 - What can I do if I run out of my medicines while I am in Scotland?
 - What to do if you're feeling unwell
